

Your Bequest options

A residual Bequest

You may wish to leave the whole, or a proportion of the residue, of your estate to Mukti. This overcomes the potential loss of value of your proposed gift due to inflation over time

A percentage

Many people share out their estate to people or organizations. You can state a percentage for each one. This avoids remaking the Will to compensate for inflation or possible changes in your Estate.

A gift of property

Property in the form of real estate, jewelry, works of art, antiques, stocks, bonds and shares can be willed to Mukti.

A specific cash sum

This needs to be reviewed regularly to offset the loss of value caused by inflation over time.

Suggested wording for your Bequest:

I give the whole / the residual / a percentage of my estate / the sum of $ _____ (select as you feel appropriate) to Ramabai Mukti Mission Australia Inc for its general purposes and I direct that the receipt of the Treasurer or other proper officer of Ramabai Mukti Mission Australia Inc shall be full and sufficient discharge of this Bequest to my executor.

Your investment in the Kingdom of God

Thinking about your Will

When updating your Will, we would like you to consider leaving a bequest to Mukti.

Through Pandita Ramabai Mukti Mission in India you can continue to change the lives of abandoned and abused girls and women into the future.

It's your opportunity to invest in the Kingdom of God and see God's work continue to grow.

Mukti Mission in India

Pandita Ramabai Mukti Mission in India is a testimony of God's faithfulness and still stands as a lighthouse before the many desperate women and children of India who come to seek refuge, care, shelter and security and in turn, are transformed and empowered to be salt and light in their society.

The ministry in India includes

- Nursery, primary and secondary education
- Education for those who are visually handicapped
- A special needs school
- Computer academy and vocational training
- Hospital and mobile medical care in the villages
- Day care centres for children
- Pastoral care for the women and children in Mukti's care
- Evangelism and church planting
- Spiritual enrichment and chaplaincy

What is a Will?

A valid will is a legal document which names the people and/or organizations who you nominate to receive your assets when you die. It also nominates your chosen Executor. Your assets generally include everything you own in your name, such as property, shares, bank accounts, household goods, personal effects and so on.

Will Information

- Everyone over the age of 18 should have a legal Will.
- People who die interstate (without leaving a Will) can cause unintentional emotional and financial hardship for those they leave behind. If you die without a Will, your assets will be distributed according to law. This means your entire Estate could go to very distant relatives or even the government.
- You can change your will at any time. You should revise it periodically to reflect your changing circumstances.
- Your first priority when preparing your Will is to provide for the immediate needs and future security of your family. The balance of your estate after all provisions have been made is referred to as the 'residual'. Many people look to this residual to provide a special Bequest to a church or mission agency, such as Mukti.
- If you already have a Will and wish to include a Bequest to Mukti, you should consult your legal advisor. If the request is straight forward, your legal advisor may suggest you simply add an addendum specifying the terms of your Bequest.

Confidential Reply

If you have already included Mukti in your Will we are most grateful.

Not only will this allow us to plan ahead, but it will give us the opportunity to thank you personally and to discuss with you how we will put your generosity to work.

- I have already included Mukti in my will
- I would like to discuss the possibility of leaving a Bequest to Mukti and would like the National Director to contact me
- Please send me more information about Mukti
